

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL AND GROUPS MINISTRY

September 7, 2024 | 9:00 am – 12:00 pm

Wayland Baptist University

Harral Auditorium, 700 Utica St, Plainview

Register at txb.org/dc

Childcare not provided

CONFERENCE TITLES & LEADERS

Pastors & Directors

Planning a Year of Discipleship

A basic strategic framework for discipleship will be shared, as well as a simple tool to help you approach annual planning with balance and intentionality. Time for open conversation about issues related to leading discipleship in your church is also planned.

David Adams, Director of Discipleship, Texas Baptists

Leaders of Adults

Groups That Thrive

Groups that engage in mission, discipleship, and community build the body of Christ and enjoy being together. In this breakout leaders of adult groups will gain tools for engaging their group members in the outward, upward, and inward purposes of Sunday School/open Small Groups..

Robby Barrett, Minister of Education, First Baptist Church, Amarillo

Leaders of Middle/High School Students

Engaging Teenagers in Small Groups

As the leader of a youth small group, preparation is more than just Bible study. You have the opportunity to help teenagers grow in their walk with Jesus and build community, but also challenge them to minister to the world around them. This session will help you formulate a plan of how to use small groups to help your students look outward, upward and inward.

Bradley Maybin, Minister to Students, First Baptist Church, Amarillo

Leaders of Preschool/Elementary Children

To Know and to Grow: Sharing the Gospel with Children

This session will explore the spiritual formation of children—how they can know they are loved by God and grow in their faith journey. As childhood leaders, we are entrusted with sharing the gospel with children during their formative years and nurturing their faith through discipleship.

Cliff Cary, Minister to Children, First Baptist Church, Amarillo

Conocer y Crecer: compartir el Evangelio Con Los Niños.

Esta sesión se centrará en la formación espiritual de los niños, para que sepan que son amados por Dios y cómo pueden crecer en su fe. Como líderes del ministerio de niños, se nos confía compartir el mensaje del evangelio con los niños durante sus años de formación y nutrir su fe a través del discipulado.

Sarah Arrambide, Minister of Childhood Education, First Baptist Church, Midland