

AFRICAN AMERICAN GO NOW MISSIONS

In 2020, African American Go Now missionary, Skyler James, helped at a kid's club and youth club every weekday afternoon, teaching Bible stories, playing games, and having snacks.

Angela was a little girl who attended the kids club, never wanting to leave after the day's activities were over. She would hide somewhere in the room when it was time for her leave. As the weeks passed, Angela became very attached to Skyler and she became more willing to participate in activities and listen to the Bible stories. By the end of Skyler's mission trip, Angela was excited to be involved in the kids club.

Through your gifts to the Mary Hill Davis Offering, African American Go Now missionaries are making an impact on children like Angela. The 2021 Week of Prayer for Texas Missions will be held on September 12-19, 2021. Prayerfully considers giving to support African American Go Now missionaries like Skyler James. ### PRAY

"God provided me with many great memories while I was in Houston, serving at Mission Centers of Houston. One moment that really stood out, occurred on a Tuesday morning while we were passing out hot meals and toiletries to the homeless. A man started to tell us his testimony about how God delivered him from a drug addiction and redeemed his life. He was so full of gratitude for our services and told us how blessed he was. His joy was exploding out of him despite his situation. That really amazed me. One could see the contentment in Christ being lived out, which Paul described in Philippians 4:11-13. It blessed my heart."
