

SERVE MINISTRIES

These ministries open the door for more effective sharing of the gospel.

One of the ministries that epitomizes Romans 10:14-15 is Project: Start which ministers to refugees. The Mary Hill Davis Offering provides funding for the office in an area of Dallas with more than 30,000 refugees living in a three-mile radius. Pastor Helen Cingpi, the director and a refugee herself, helps people overcome obstacles such as language and cultural differences.

ADVANCE MISSIONS LEADERSHIP

These ministries equip both clergy and laity as they share the gospel and serve others.

When Mary Hill Davis spoke of working together in 1908, she might not have known about Leadership Development through River Ministry and Mexico Missions. She did know that only through unity of mind and effort could Texas Baptists raise up a new generation of missionaries, pastors, and leaders to lead others into a brighter future. Leadership Development will help develop fellowship, comradery, and community in the hard work of missions.

LOVE THE LEAST OF THESE

These ministries seek to serve those who are often overlooked such as special needs adults, victims of human trafficking, single parents, men needing employment/life skills, and people living in poverty.

Although she lived in the last century, Davis' visionary thinking still challenges Texas Baptists as we love the least of these. In 1909 she wrote, "You cannot hope to touch your neighbor's heart with anything less than your own."

Since 1997, Christian Women's and Men's Job Corps® has helped women and men by providing life and job skills education in a Christ-centered environment. Bible study and mentoring are also key elements.

TELL MINISTRIES

These ministries enable Texas Baptists to be a witness.

We have one purpose as believers – bring the world to Christ. In 1907, Davis challenged the women of Texas to work for this purpose when she said, “Soul winning is the keynote to which every loyal heart should attune its melody, and so catch the inspiration of that gracious text, ‘And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament, and they that turn many to righteousness, as the stars forever and ever’” (Daniel 12:3).

Consider the story of Baptist Student Ministries (BSM) across Texas reaching the nations by caring for international students who come to study in our state. We can help reach those who will return to their countries to become leaders in government and business. Some will return with Christ in their hearts and become missionaries among their own people.
