

Becky Ellison Endowment Scholarship Application For Site Leaders

Application Deadline: Must be postmarked by May 24

The purpose of Becky Ellison Endowment provides scholarships for CWJC/CMJC site leadership to further their education.

To celebrate the fifth birthday of Christian Women's Job Corps in 2001, Texas site coordinators took an offering to create this endowment. In 2004 when the first Christian Men's Job Corps site opened in San Angelo the name was changed to include CMJC. The endowment is to provide scholarships for CWJC/CMJC participants to further their education and funds for CWJC/CMJC leadership who need continuing education in areas related to the mission of CWJC/CMJC.

Recipients will be selected by the WMU of Texas Board of Directors Endowments Administrative Committee in consultation with the Texas CWJC/CMJC Advisory Council. Preference will be given to first-time applicants. The WMU of Texas Board of Directors Endowments Administrative Committee will determine amounts of assistance based on available earned income of the Endowment Fund and will disburse the funds according to the following guidelines:

Applicants shall:

- Submit the Becky Ellison Endowment Scholarship Application in writing, stating the purpose and need of the scholarship.
- Show promise and evidence that further education will be pursued.
- Demonstrate a need for financial assistance.
- Be admitted as a student to a certificate program, trade school, college, or university.
- Provide a summary of their experience at the end of the school year to the State Consultant for CWJC/CMJC, who will forward the report to the WMU of TX Board of Directors Endowments Administrative Committee.
- Participate in a video conference or in-person interview with members of the CJC Advisory Council after submitting the BEES application.
- List the continuing education focus area and the educational institution where instruction will be received.
- Have two years of experience with CWJC/CMJC.
- Demonstrate an ongoing commitment to serve through CWJC/CMJC.

To submit the application
