

Becky Ellison Endowment Scholarship Participant Application

Application Deadline: Must be postmarked by May 24

The purpose of the Becky Ellison Endowment is to provide scholarships for CWJC/CMJC graduates to further their education.

To celebrate the fifth birthday of Christian Women's Job Corps in 2001, Texas site coordinators took an offering to create this endowment. In 2004 when the first Christian Men's Job Corps site opened in San Angelo the name was changed to include CMJC. The endowment is to provide scholarships for CWJC/CMJC participants to further their education and funds for CWJC/CMJC leadership who need continuing education in areas related to the mission of CWJC/CMJC.

Recipients will be selected by the WMU of Texas Board of Directors Endowments Administrative Committee in consultation with the Texas CWJC/CMJC Advisory Council. Preference will be given to first-time applicants. The Texas State Advisory Council recommends that a graduate can apply up to five years after graduation. The WMU of Texas Board of Directors Endowments Administrative Committee will determine amounts of assistance based on available earned income and will disburse the funds according to the following guidelines:

Scholarship applicant will:

- Be a graduate of a certified CWJC/CMJC site
- Be recommended by their site coordinator. Site Coordinators are required to complete and send the Recommendation for Participant Scholarship form to the State of Texas CWJC/CMJC Consultant prior to the deadline for the scholarship.
- Have an excellent attendance and participation record of the CWJC/CMJC program
- Show promise and evidence that further education will be pursued
- Demonstrate a need for financial assistance
- Be admitted as a student to a certificate program, trade school, college, or university
- Provide a summary of their experience at the end of the school year to State Consultant for CWJC/CMJC who forwards the report to the WMU of TX Board of Directors Endowment Administrative Committee
- Participate in a zoom or in-person interview with members of the CJC Advisory Council after submitting the BEES application
- Submit the Becky Ellison Scholarship Application in writing stating the purpose and need of the scholarship
- List the continuing education focus area and the educational institution where instruction will be received.
